

Democracy depends on open exchange of ideas and equal access to all points of view. Allowing further monopolization of media ownership is hazardous to the health of our nation. The ONLY beneficiaries to this would be the few rich & powerful corporations that already control too much!! Everyone else loses. (It also results in really boring, homogeneous radio)